

You are scheduled for a duck hunt compliments of California Waterfowl. Arrive promptly by 8:00 pm on Friday evening for blind assignments and safety instructions. Please do not arrive early.

Important Notice: If you are unable to make the hunt, please notify the hunt coordinator Jeff Smith at 530-305-9234.

Make sure the parent (or guardian) and youth hunter sign the attached “Hunt Program Liability Release” and bring it with you. If a chaperone (21 years or older) will be bringing the youth, make sure they have the signed form with them. All youth hunters must have an accompanying adult hunt chaperone.

What to bring

1. For youth hunter: All hunting gear including hunting license, ear and eye protection, 4 boxes ammunition, gun, floating gun case, waders, camouflage jacket, hat, gloves, and warm clothes.
2. For chaperone: Ear and eye protection, waders, camera, camouflage jacket, hat, gloves, and warm clothes.
3. Overnight gear including sleeping bag, sleeping pad, pillow as there may not be beds for all participants. Indoor sleeping and bathroom facilities are available for everyone but no shower facilities will be available.
4. Signed Hunt Program Liability Release.
5. Bring a great attitude, focus on safety and enjoy the outdoor experience.

When you arrive

Keep guns/ammunition locked up in your vehicle until ready to leave for blinds in the morning. Dogs should be kept in vehicle until ready to leave for blinds and on a leash until you reach the blind.

What to expect

1. For guided hunters, the guide will take care of all gun safety, shooting instruction, duck calling, and bird retrieving.
2. For unguided hunters, make sure you bring duck calls and remember, decoys will be provided. You may bring your own wind duck or Moto duck (starting December 1st).
3. No dinner will be served on Friday but breakfast and lunch on Saturday will be provided.

Please contact Jeff Smith at 530-305-9234, George Oberstadt at 916-275-0961 or visit www.calwaterfowl.org for cancellation information if weather or other adverse conditions arise.
