

Yolo Bypass Wildlife Area Clean Up and Field Day Saturday, September 18, 2010 Start Time 8:00 a.m.

Here is an opportunity to give back to the Yolo Bypass Wildlife Area, a tremendous refuge which waterfowl hunters and outdoor enthusiasts have benefited from for many years. California Waterfowl Association (CWA) is seeking volunteers for light duty clean up and setup for the coming hunting season. Activities will include cleaning blinds, setting signs, cleanup and setup of parking lots. Some concrete work and fence repair work is anticipated. A signup sheet will be available at the check station.

A light lunch of hot dogs and lemonade will be available for purchases the day of the clean up and field day for only $1.00 or you are more than welcome to bring your own lunch.

What To Do:

1. RSVP to contacts listed below.
2. Check in at the check station.
3. Bring your lunch (unless purchasing hot dogs and lemonade), outdoor work clothes, boots, chest waders, drinking water, sun block and insect repellent if you have them.
4. Bring tools (gloves, hammer, pruning shears, rakes, shovels, weed whacker, etc.)
5. Send any contribution you can to assist CWA's clean up effort.

Please RSVP for the Yolo Clean Up Day so that we may have a proper headcount by contacting one of the contacts listed below:
